COTSWOLD TOUR

The Cotswolds area is one of England's favourite destinations; famous for hundreds of honey-colour limestone villages in a beautiful rural setting. Popular with both the English themselves and visitors from all over the world, the Cotswolds are well-known for gentle hillsides ('wolds'), sleepy villages and for being so 'typically English'. So join us on a tour of some of the prettiest villages and towns in the area

BLETCHLEY PARK or MILTON KEYNES

Step back in time at Bletchley Park and explore the old code breaking huts, have a look round the mansion and the many exhibits that are on display throughout. There are soundscapes playing snatches of conversation, music, noises of bicycle bells and steam trains which is how it may have sounded during WW2. The landscape has been restored to its WW2 appearance and the footprints of the long-gone Huts 2 and 9 marked out to remind visitors where they were. The tennis courts have also been restored to grass, as they were in the early 40s. This place is steeped in history and well worth a visit. Or if you fancy a day in the "city in the country" wandering round the lovely parks and along the river and stopping in some riverside pubs, finished off with some shopping, then Milton Keynes is the place for you.

WINDSOR CASTLE

Windsor Castle is the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world. For over a period of nearly 1,000 years it has been inhabited continuously, and altered and refurbished by successive monarchs. Some were great builders, strengthening the Castle against uprising and rebellion; others, living in more peaceful times, created a palatial Royal residence. Please note there are no restaurants on site, but the town of Windsor is about 5 minutes walk away or you could have a picnic in grounds.

SISTER ACT, IPSWICH REGENT

An all new production of the Broadway and West End smash hit musical comedy returns to the UK. Directed and choreographed by Craig Revel Horwood, Sister Act is a musical comedy based on the smash hit movie starring Whoopi Goldberg and Maggie Smith. Featuring original music by Alan Menken, dazzling dance routines and songs inspired by Motown, soul and disco, this is the funniest and funkiest musical around.

The show tells the hilarious story of Deloris Van Cartier, a disco diva whose life takes a surprising turn when she witnesses a murder. Under protective custody she is hidden in the one place she won't be found – a Convent! Disguised as a nun and under the suspicious watch of Mother Superior, Deloris helps her fellow sisters find their voices as she unexpectedly rediscovers her own. A sparkling tribute to the universal power of friendship, sisterhood and music. Come and see why this fabulous family friendly show has been seen by more than 6 million people worldwide.
