CHARTWELL, KENT

This National Trust property was the much-loved Churchill family home. The rooms remain much as they were when Winston Churchill lived here, with pictures, books and personal mementoes evoking the career and wide-ranging interests of a great statesman and family man. The hillside gardens show Churchill's love of landscape and nature. They include the lakes he created, his painting studio, Lady Churchill's Rose Garden, the kitchen garden, and the Marycot, a playhouse created especially for Churchill's youngest daughter.

KNITTING & STITCHING SHOW, OLYMPIA

The spring knitting and stitching show, held at Olympia Central, is the perfect place to shop, learn and find inspiration for a new project.

The Spring Knitting and Stitching Show celebrates a whole host of crafts; from knitting, sewing and dressmaking to quilting, crochet, cross stitch, homestyling and textile art. With over 200 companies exhibiting, you'll leave the show with essential supplies and inspiration for your own projects, whatever your craft passion.

The show is bigger than ever with some new features such as the K&S Homestyle Theatre offering free demonstrations and advice from some of the UK's leading craft authors plus the Inspiration Station showcasing embroideries from around the world. The Dressmaking Studio returns to the show this year, together with Learning Curve Workshops and the Prima Make & Take theatre which offers an extensive programme of hands-on practical sessions great for both beginners and the more advanced.
